TO THE PUBLIC.

IT may be, naturally imagined that upon introducing to public Exhibition and Sale, a Catalogue, containing nearly Nine Thousand Lots, something by way of Introduction should be said on the Occasion.

The late Mr. Brand was too well known, and his refined and diligent Research in every Branch of Polite Literature, and as a Collector of every Thing relative to popular decayed Antiquity and Topography, of Great Britain and Ireland, is perhaps unrivalled in the present Time. It would be presumption in me to enter into a Description of the precious RELICS, OR GEMS, which are entrusted to my Care by his Executors.

The Admirers of the History and Antiquities of our Country will find Articles in this Library to instruct the Mind, and gratify Curiosity, as Specimens in numerous Variety are to be found from the Presses of the Fathers of English Typography, Caxton, Winkyn de Worde, Pinson, &c. The rarity of many of these Specimens of English Literature, owing to the avidity in which each contending Party bought and destroyed, according as they found it conducive to their interests at the Time, during the Reigns of Henry 7th and 8th, Edward 6th, Queen Mary, and Queen Elizabeth; and even during the Reigns of James 1st, Charles 1st, the Civil War, Oliver Cromwell, and Charles 2d, every Work that did not accord with their Ideas, or suit their Purposes.

Many of the Publications alluded to, AND SUPPOSED UNIQUE, will be found in this Catalogue.

The MS. Notes, written in the beginning of many of the Books, Anecdotes, and Account of Authors, &c. by Mr. Brand and others, occur very frequently; and must be deemed valuable and curious, being decayed Biography, hitherto unknown, of the Parties mentioned.

The Manuscripts consist of Visitations of the Counties in England and Wales, with Pedigrees, Arms, &c. of the Nobility and Gentry in the Reigns of Queen Elizabeth, James 1st, Charles 1st and 2d, with various Works on Heraldry, Pedigrees and Arms, original Grants and Pedigrees of Families, with the Subscribers' Names, &c. Antiquity of England, Poetry, Missals, &c.

The many Inaccuracies, which through the very short Time allowed in taking and printing the following Catalogue, the Indulgence of the Public is particularly solicited, by their dutiful, and most obedient humble Servant,

WM. STEWART.
